What is The Apostles' Creed (Confession of Faith)?

In its oldest form, the Apostles' Creed goes back to at least 140 A.D. Many of the early church leaders summed up their beliefs as they had an opportunity to stand for their faith—see, for example, 1 Timothy 6:12. These statements developed into a more standard form to express one's confession of faith at the time of baptism. It is not Scripture, but it is a simple list of the great doctrines of the faith.

The Apostles' Creed is not found in the Bible. The Apostles' Creed was not written by the apostles. Rather, it was written at least 150 years after the apostles had all died. It is called the Apostles' Creed because it is supposed to be a record of what the apostles taught.

The Apostles' Creed is a good summary of Christian doctrine.

Elim Christian Preschool Registration is open for Elim member and regular attendees. Registration will open to Preschool parents on Monday, Feb. 12.
