Scripture

Philippians 4:10-13 in the NASB (New American Standard Bible)

But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at last you have revived your concern for me; indeed, you were concerned before, but you lacked opportunity. Not that I speak from want, for I have learned to be content in whatever circumstances I am. I know how to get along with humble means, and I also know how to live in prosperity; in any and every circumstance I have learned the secret of being filled and going hungry, both of having abundance and suffering need. I can do all things through Him who strengthens me.

Message from Marilyn Carter: "Thank you so much to my wonderful Elim family for the beautiful flowers, the wonderful food, thoughtful prayers, greeting cards, help and visits. We are truly blessed to be a part of this loving, caring family - Elim! May our God richly bless every one of you! With Love, Marilyn Carter"

Prayer Support ~

Is anyone among you suffering? Then he must pray. Is anyone cheerful? He is to sing praises. Is anyone among you sick? Then he must call for the elders of the church and they are to pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer offered in faith will restore the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up, and if he has committed sins, they will be forgiven him. James 5:13-15
